FRIDAY & SATURDAY ONLY MCMILLIN'S 10 HOUR ROASTED PRIME RIBS OF BEEF

Welcome to McMillin's Dining Room, home of the best Prime Rib in the Northwest. It all started in the spring of 1958, the Roche Harbor Inn opened with slow roasted prime rib inspired by the New York steak house. Since that time, we have perfected the roasting process that starts early each morning.

Chef Shaw works closely with ranchers and selects only the top 2%, USDA Prime beef ribeye roasts from Northwest then custom ages our beef for over 40 days, creating intense beef flavor, juiciness and a delicate tender bite. McMillin's famous Prime Rib is hand rubbed with cracked black pepper and Lawry's® seasoning salt then slowly roasted for 10 hours until it reaches the ideal medium rare internal temperature. Tonight's prime ribs of beef are served with house made veal bone au jus and freshly grated Oregon horseradish.

All our prime rib is served with your choice of roasted garlic mashed potatoes, baked potato with loaded steak house butter or crispy seashore fries.

OUR BEEF

All of our prime steaks and ribeye roasts are Angus beef, from the Northwest's premier beef producer, Double R Ranch where they are proud to follow humane farming practices and fed the finest corn, grain, alfalfa and minerals. This year's beef custom aged for 40 days using a precise method that adds juiciness, tenderness and rich beef flavor.

USDA PRIME STEAKS

McMillin's serves only the finest abundantly marbled Prime beef, aged to perfection, hand cut and grilled to your preference.

BLACKENING SPICE

As an aspiring young chef, Paul Prudhomme was a bigger than life, culinary hero from Cajun roots in Louisiana. Young Paul would secretly bring envelopes of his blackening spice into the kitchen tucked into his chef jacket. In these envelopes, contained aromatic spices, peppers and herbs combined with a touch of sugar transforming any meat into something magical.
